Dear Bob:

To complete your files I enclose copies of the letters which were delivered to the various collaborators of the Survey Group.

I enjoyed your report yesterday afternoon. As I suggested, if you find time to jot down the major points brought out in the comments on the report, it would be helpful to have them as a basis for preparing for any possible meeting. As I see it, we should forget all querulous or trifling dissents and concentrate on the basic issues.

Sincerely,

A. W. Dulles
